CONQUERS MAD STEER IN FIGHT

John Carr Successfully Throws Enraged Bovine Which Threatened to Kill Several Men.

BOWLS OVER WAGON EASILY

Young Cow "Puncher" Adapts Most Dangerous Tactics as Last Resort.

Rushville people have been in the habit of paying five cents to be admitted to a moving picture show to see some of the "stunts" of cowboy life on the plains, but should they have hastened to the Shock Cecil farm just north of the city corporation line in North Main street this morning, they might have seen an exhibition of cattle "busting" free of charge. John Carr, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen L. Carr, living at the corner of Perkins and Fifth streets was the principal in the episode, while a mad steer was a rather important actor.

Henry Neff, a stock buyer, had purchased a three-year-old steer from Mr. Cecil. This morning he went to bring the animal to the city and ship it, but he found it a rather trying proposition. When the men went into the field they found that the bovine was not so docile as they first thought.

When they approached the steer, it ran at them with all the mad fury that an enraged steer can command and they dodged. They thought if only a prank and made another attempt to capture the bovine. But the steer was not to be taken to the slaughter house. He would rather put some men in the slaughter house. The men tried all of the plans which taxed their ingenuity completely and they finally retreated with the white flag of truce. In fact, about all they did was retreat. The steer would come at them and they could only narrowly avoid being gored by his long, tapering horns.

After they had attempted to knock him down with a rail and stun him so that they could jump on his head and hold him down, the men decided that it was useless after they had failed in that. Then it was suggested to try a lasso and that was attempted, but to no avail. They could get the lasso over his head, but the steer would dash at them and they ran to another portion of the field. The more the men attempted to capture him, the more enraged the steer became. He ran at a big two-horse wagon with all his might and bowled it over as if it were a mere plaything. His eyes were almost bulging out of his head, his nostrils bleeding, and the foam was flowing freely from his mouth. It was not long before reason gained the upper hand with the crowd of men and they repaired to an adjoining field, where they watched the steer rage and tear from a distance.

Then some one had a happy thought. John Carr has spent much of his time in Texas and has had much experience in ranging and overcoming mean steers and bulls. The man with the happy idea ran to the house, calley young Carr and he soon came out on a horse. He said that he could conquer the steer and proceeded to do so.

He first attempted to lasso the steer, while on the horse's back and throw him. But after several attempts proved futile, he decided upon another course, as his horse was not trained as a cow "puncher" would have one. He also feared that the horse might be gored and seriously hurt. He took his horse from the field and tried to stun the steer with blows over the head. The wet rails which he used, broke with each blow, and he tried another plan which worked more successfully.

Young Carr made several attempts to throw the steer, but he refused to fall, and was becoming more angry every minute. The young ranchman tried twisting the steer's tail and grabbing one back leg to throw him, but that attempt was a failure. He changed his plan of operations to the steer's head and tried to throw him by snatching one front leg and one horn. That would not work. Finally, as a last resort, he adopted the most dangerous method of the lot, the one which is very seldom practiced. Allowing the enraged steer to dash straight at him, he grabbed the steer's horns and, after a superhuman test of strength between the steer and the man, the bovine finally gave up and fell to the ground, only after his neck had been twisted considerably.

It is said that steers' horns often cause them to go mad. It is declared by men familiar with cattle, that the horns are generally the cause for a bull to be enraged. When the steer was finally thrown his horns were broken and beaten off so that he might possibly be conquered. The steer was born on a western ranch and has all the instincts of a mean and dangerous western animal.

APPEALS TO HIGHER COURT

Knightstown Woman, Charged With Speeding, is Found Guilty.

The case of the State against Minnie Scoville of Knightstown, charged with driving her automobile along the National road in 1909 at an unlawful and dangerous rate of speed is on trial in the circuit court by a jury, says the Greenfield Reporter. Mrs. Scoville ran her machine into a rig driven by Mrs. Otto Parish and another lady, upsetting the rig and throwing them out. It is alleged that she failed to stop and ascertain the damage done. The case was tried in the mayor's court and the defendant found guilty, taking an appeal to the circuit court.

MUCH TALK AS TO SALARY INCREASE

$100 Raise Interests Local Rural Route Carriers, Who Say Some Mistake Has Been Made.

THREE ARE UNDER 25 MILES

There is much interest being shown by the local rural mail carriers in the law passed a few days ago by the national House of Representatives, providing that the salaries, of carriers with routes of 25 miles would be increased one hundred dollars. The men here thing that some mistake has been made as their understanding of the proposed law was that the increase would be given to men with routes of 24 miles. If this should be the case all twelve of the carriers from this city would receive the $100 advance in pay. But if the law says 25 miles, there will be three routes which would not come in for the full raise, but would receive an increase proportionately. The three routes and their carriers which are under 25 miles in length are: Route four, James Mattox; route six, Lon Kennedy and route eight, George Aultman.

TELEGRAPHS FOR MOTHER'S WORD

Miss Nina Richey of Milroy Elopes to Covington, Kentucky, With Silverton Miller.

WIRES PARENTS FOR CONSENT

She Telegraphs Back "All Right" and Knot is Tied in Blue Grass
State.

To elope with her lover and then telegraph back and ask her mother's consent to marry him was the rather novel plan adopted by Miss Nina Richey, eighteen year old daughter of Mrs. Mary Richey of Milroy yesterday. Miss Richey is now Mrs. Silverton Miller, she having wedded the seventeen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Miller, living on the Havens & Riggs farm, south of the city on the New Salem pike, at Covington, Kentucky.

Miss Richey and young Richey have been keeping company for several months. Wednesday Miller called at the Richey home in Milroy and the two announced to the young girl's mother that they planned to go to Indianapolis to see a show. They left and since that time Mrs. Richey has not seen her daughter. She received word that the young couple would be back today to receive her blessing.

Instead of going to Indianapolis Mr. and Mrs. Miller went to the opposite direction and crossed the Ohio into the Blue Grass state, the mecca for young couples, who would evade the rather stringent marriage laws of Indiana. When they arrived in Kentucky, it seems evident that their "nerve failed them" and the girl telegraphed her mother asking if she could marry Silverton Miller. Mrs. Richey immediately wired back, "All right." The knot was joined some time yesterday afternoon and the young couple arrived home on the early train this morning.

Mrs. Mary Richey is the widow of Dayton Richey and is among the most highly respected residents of Milroy. Miss Richey was well liked in that town. Mr. Miller is well known here. His father is an energetic farmer and has many friends here.

WILL MANUFACTURE ICE

Lewisville Man Will Start Cold Storage Establishment.

Simon Martin, who is serving on the petit jury of Henry county, is getting ready to go into business on a large scale at Lewisville this spring and summer. He has purchased the old Lewisville creamery and will convert it into an ice factory and storage house for eggs and butter this summer. Mr. Martin will commence next week to build a large live poultry house adjoining the old creamery building, and will get into the chicken and egg business altogether and devote all of his time to the other pursuit. He proposes to manufacture artificial ice and store it in addition to having a cold storage establishment.

TWO-POUND BABY.

Though nearly a week old, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Swain of Huntington, weighs only a fraction over two pounds. The infant is well and has a good chance for life.

TO PERFORM SAD RITES SATURDAY

The Funeral of George Wissing, Who Committed Suicide by Hanging,
Will be Held Tomorrow.

ILL HEALTH GIVEN AS CAUSE

Formerly Lived on the Rush-Shelby
County Line and Has Relatives
Here Now.

The funeral services of George Wissing, 56 years old, the brother of Mrs. Margaret Kney of this county and Jacob Wissing of Manilla, who committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself in the barn at the farm of his brother-in-law, William Hill, living near Shelbyville, will be held at the German church in Liberty township, Shelby county, tomorrow morning at ten-thirty o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Mr. McMullen. Interment will take place in the German cemetery, near the church.

Wissing had been at the Hill home only since last Tuesday as he had just returned to Shelby county a few days ago from Ohio, where he had been for a few months making his home with a son. The rash act is supposed to have resulted from despondency as Mr. Wissing's health had been failing for some time and he had complained considerably to his relatives regarding his condition.

Thursday morning he acted so strangely that Mr. Hill became so concerned about him that he watched pretty closely. He kept going to the barn, but would leave it as soon as his brother-in-law put in an appearance. Shortly after 10 o'clock he went to the barn again. When he did not return in a reasonable time Mr. Hill went to look for him. He found him hanging in one of the stalls in the stable by a halter strap, which he had fastened to a beam above the stall. The strap was so long that the victim's feet were resting on the floor of the stall. Mr. Hill lost no time in cutting him down as he believed he was still alive. His efforts to resuscitate him, however, were unavailing. Death had resulted from strangulation as the neck was not broken.

The suicide was formerly a resident of Blue Ridge near the Rush-Shelby county line, but had no fixed home since the death of his wife a few years ago. He spent most of his time visiting among his children and had been with his son, John, at Toledo, O., for about two months before his return to Shelby county a few days ago.

Besides two sons, one of Shelby county, Wissing also leaves two daughters, Miss Minnie Wissing, who is attending the State Normal at Terre Haute and Mrs. Willard Phares of Knightstown. Two sisters, Mrs. Henry Briggeman of near Blue Ridge and Mrs. Margaret Kney of Rush county, and one brother, Jacob Wissing of near Manilla, also survive him.

WANT AD. DID WORK.

It is well to remember that Gus Wilkinson is an honest man. He found a hen in his yard, "penned" it up and advertised for the owner in the want ad. columns of the Daily Republican. Yesterday the owner appeared after the ad had been run once. He identified Miss Hen, took her home under his sheltering "wing" and declares he will so impair her flying apparatus so that she will never go visiting again.

TO MAKE FINAL EFFORT

Attorney to Try Once More to Get
New Wilson Trial.

Attorney Clarence S. Roots, principal counsel for John Wilson, convicted of the murder of his wife, is not yet ready to abandon his client to a life behind prison bars, says the Connersville News. Although the Supreme court of Indiana, the highest tribunal to whom appeal can be made, recently sustained the verdict of the jury that last heard the evidence, Mr. Roots still has hope of securing a reversal. To that end he is preparing an appeal to the Supreme court asking for a rehearing.

GAVE MONEY TO FAMILY IN NEED

Subscription Passed Among Business Men For Lora Downey, Whose Child Died From Diphtheria.

$40.35 WAS AMOUNT RAISED

A subscription, passed among the business men, resulted in $40.35 being raised for the Downey family who live at 406 North Arthur street. Mr. and Mrs. Downey lost their six year old daughter, Olive, Monday, from diphtheria and were found to be in need of help. There are six little children in the family and all have been exposed to the disease. Because of the illness and death of his child, Mr. Downey has been unable to work. One of the children was taken ill last night but it is not known whether it is diphtheria or not. Mr. Downey greatly appreciates the gift given him and it is expected that the money will go a good way in helping him get on his feet once more. The act was a very charitable one and came at a time when most needed.

WILL OPEN NEW THEATER

Rushville Will Have Four Moving Picture Shows.

Warner Schmidt, brother of Mrs. Fred Beale of North Oliver street, who now owns and operates the Princess and Theatorium theaters in New Castle, will open a new moving picture show in this city in the Abercrombie room in West Second street, which will be vacated by the Hogsett store soon, in a very short time. Mr. Schmidt has had considerable experience and expects to install a modern five cent theater here. He will begin repairs on the building in a few days preparatory to opening his show.

CHURCH STARTS MOVEMENT

The Rev. A. W. Jamieson Indorses
Postoffice Closing on Sunday.

Postmaster Charles Frazee has received a copy of the resolutions, adopted by the United Presbyterian church and signed by the pastor, the Rev. A. W. Jamieson and the church board, endorsing the movement which has been started to close the postoffice on Sunday. The postal employees are soliciting the assistance of the churches and hope, with their influence to carry the plan through, so that they may have a day of rest on Sunday. Petitions will be circulated soon for general signatures.

MINISTER WILL MAKE APPEAL

The Rev. A. W. Jamieson Will Preach
on Leading Question at U. P.
Church Sunday.

MOVEMENT NOT TO BE GENERAL

His Subject Will be "Shall the Saloons be Allowed to Come Back?"

Local option still continues to "hold the boards" in Rushville and the question as to whether or not saloons will "come back" is as yet only a mere matter of opinion since many minor details of the law are not understood. The "dry" element is still considering plans to continue the present conditions in the city at least and the "wet" element is planning to go ahead and open saloons as soon as the law allows.

The first effort of any sort that has so far been made in the endeavor to induce people to take some stand in the liquor question, which has been precipitated on the people of Indiana by the action of the Legislature in passing the Proctor bill and practically repealing the county option law, will come Sunday, when the Rev. A. W. Jamieson, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, will preach on the liquor question. He will have for his subject at the morning service, "Shall the Saloons be Allowed to Come Back?"

So far as can be learned the ministers of the city will not make any concerted effort to appeal for a vote on the question and ask that saloons not be allowed to return here. The Rev. A. W. Jamieson is the only minister in the city who will preach on the topic. The pastorate of the Main Street Christian church is vacant and for that reason there will be no service there. The Rev. E. C. Myers, pastor of the First Baptist church, is assisting in a revival meeting in Connersville and has announced no plans for his Sunday service. The Rev. J. W. Turner, pastor of the St. Paul M. E. church, is ill and it is not likely that he will discuss the subject, if he is even able to appear in the pulpit. The Rev. J. B. Meacham has announced his sermon topics and the liquor question will not be discussed.

While the "drys" are considering, the "wets" are making plans to open saloons as soon as the time arrives. The old law provides, and the new law does not change that feature, that a man must publish his notice for a petition for a license so sell liquor twenty days before it shall be presented to the county board of commissioners. Many said that James McCormick, who published his notice Wednesday, was too hasty as the Proctor bill had not yet become a law. But he may yet publish it several times and still be within the limit so that he may petition the commissioners at their March meeting.

Rheumatism Comes From Bad Kidneys

Once Your Kidneys Work Properly, Rheumatism, Kidney Disease and Bladder Trouble Disappear. How To Cure Yourself.

It is no longer necessary to spend months and months undergoing a complicated treatment for rheumatism, kidney or bladder trouble, or spend a good many dollars in doctors' bills.

A new treatment can now be obtained which seems to act more like a marvel than a medicine. This treatment has produced such satisfactory results in a short time that it is now guaranteed from first to last.

There should be no more doubt about the rapid cure of rheumatism, no fears of the fatal termination of treacherous kidney disease or dropsy.

Rheumatism means nothing more nor less than that your kidneys do not work properly. Your blood passes through the kidneys hundreds of times a day to be filtered and purified. When the kidneys are weak, the poisons are not taken out of the blood as they should be. This leads to various diseases, such as rheumatism, terrible Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy and bladder trouble.

The new guaranteed treatment is Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills. One day's use of them will prove their remarkable effect. M. T. Ridenour of Lima, Ohio, says: "When I feel bad in my back, I just take a couple of Derby's Kidney Pills and get immediate relief."

If you have rheumatism anywhere, back pains, cloudy, foul urine, pains in the bladder, Bright's disease or diabetes, put your whole confidence in Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills, and you will not be disappointed.

Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills are sold at all drug stores—60 pills—10 days' treatment—25 cents, or we will send them direct from the laboratory of Derby Medicine Co., Eaton Rapids, Mich., prepaid if you wish. If you want to try them first, just tell your druggist to give you a free sample package.

It will always be a mystery how it caught as no one was there at the time, but it is supposed it caught from the gas. It seemed to have originated upstairs for no one could go up there on account of the smoke. Almost everything on the first floor and in the cellar were saved. Those who came in to help seemed to keep very cool, for they saved even the dishes and canned fruit without breaking many of them. There was some insurance. They expect to build again.

AMUSEMENTS

Henry K. Burton, manager of the Empire Theater, in Indianapolis, has discovered that Jack Johnson, the big negro pugilist, who wrestled the championship from James J. Jeffries, is anything but simple in his daily tastes. Burton has booked Johnson to appear at the Empire in Indianapolis as an extra attraction with The Rector Girls Company all next week and in making the arrangements, Johnson named a number of stipulations which will have to be lived up to.

He demands a salary that is a small sized fortune in itself. In addition thereto, railroad fares for himself, his retinue of trainers and others in his party must be paid. A big touring rear, with chauffeur thrown in, must be furnished for his use every day. He also intimates that he would like to live at a private residence where porkechops and chicken would be served three times a day, but this is one thing that could not be guaranteed him.

Arrangements for Johnson's accommodations in Indianapolis are being made by a committee of prominent colored citizens of the Hoosier Capital and there is a scramble on the part of the well-to-do colored people of Indianapolis for the privilege of housing "Little Arthur" during his engagement.

Lesson V.—First Quarter, For Jan. 29, 1911.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, II Chron. xvii, 1-12. Memory Verses, 3, 4—Golden Text, Matt. vi, 33—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

This week's lesson is much more attractive than that of last week, inasmuch as we are now introduced to another good king of Judah, Jehoshaphat by name, who succeeded his father Asa and reigned twenty-five years. Last week it was chiefly the devil and his wickedness; now it is chiefly Jehoshaphat and his ways. We say "chiefly" because there were some things in the life of Jehoshaphat which were not ordered by the Lord, though they were doubtless overruled by Him for good. I refer to his joining affinity with Ahab and with Ahaziah, kings of Israel, who both did very wickedly (xviii, 1; xx, 35). God wants a people wholly set apart for Himself and in no way entangled by or mixed up with unbelievers. Our instructions are plainly written in II Cor. vi, 14-18, the only passage in the New Testament outside of Revelation where we find the name "Almighty," the significance of which we will not know in our experience unless we are wholly separated unto Him.

Many beautiful things are said of Jehoshaphat in our lesson, such as "The Lord was with him; he sought to the Lord God of his father; his heart was lifted up in the ways of the Lord;" also some grand things that he said as found in the record of him, such as "Believe in the Lord your God, so shall ye be established; believe His prophets, so shall ye prosper" (xx, 20); also his charge to the Levites and priests in chapter xix, 9-11, and his prayer in chapter xx, 6-12.

It was most commendable that he should send throughout all the cities of Judah those who would teach out of the book of the law of the Lord (verse 9). So we read that the Lord established the kingdom in his hand, and not only all Judah, but also the Philistines and the Arabians, brought him presents, and he had riches and honor in abundance and waxed great exceedingly (verses 5, 10-12), a fulfillment of the words, "Them that honor me I will honor" (I Sam. ii, 30).

It would have been a better record if it could have been written that this good king never in any way turned aside from doing right in the sight of the Lord, but only one ever lived on earth who knew no sin and did no sin. Ever since Adam sinned every mere man has proved himself to be a sinner. How wonderful it is and what glorious good news that He who never sinned, having been made sin for us, offers to blot out all our sins and put His righteousness to our account before God (II Cor. v, 21).

When Jehoshaphat went with Ahab to battle and almost lost his life thereby, when he in his extremity cried out, the Lord helped him, and God moved them to depart from him (xviii, 29-31). It is only as the Lord, or Jehovah, who by grace becomes our righteousness, that God, or Elohim, the Creator, can do anything for such as we are. It was after Jehoshaphat had been rebuked for his sin in the matter of Ahab with the memorable and far-reaching words, "Shouldst thou help the ungodly and love them that hate the Lord," that he said to the judges whom he appointed, "Take heed what ye do, for ye judge not for man, but for the Lord" (chapter xix, 2, 6, 7). When we see in our day those who profess to honor Jesus as God joining hands in so called good works with those who deny that Jesus is God it looks very much like a union of Christ and antichrist, an impossibility, and therefore all who unite in any way with the enemies of Christ are for the time being denying Him.

The record of Jehoshaphat's victory over the people of Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir in chapter xx is in many respects the most remarkable part of his story. His confession of utter helplessness and lack of wisdom, with his reliance upon God, as set forth in his prayer (verses 6-12), is very beautiful. The answer to his prayer through Jahaziel (verses 14-17) was most encouraging with its repeated "Be not afraid nor dismayed," and its other words, so like those through Moses, when the Egyptians pursued Israel. Compare Ex. xiv, 13, 14, "If we are true children of God the battle is always His, and it is ours to stand still and see the salvation of the Lord." On this occasion the people went forth singing and praising the Lord, and not only were the enemies smitten, but they began to destroy themselves. It is always safe to believe God and to praise God, to bless the Lord at all times.

So God gave Jehoshaphat rest round about, and his realm was quiet, and all the kingdoms feared God when they saw how He fought for Israel (xx, 29, 30). If we were to the Lord what He would like us to be He would fill us with His rest and peace and joy, and something of the life of Jesus would be manifest in us to His glory. In Jehoshaphat's prayer Abraham is mentioned as the friend of God, and only in two other places is he thus mentioned, in Isa. xli, 8; Jas. ii, 23. But in John xv, 14, Jesus said, "Ye are my friends if ye do whatsoever I command you."

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning Jan. 29, 1911.

Topic.—A missionary journey around the world.—I. Missions in the United States (north and east). Edited by Rev. Sherman H. Doyle, D. D.

The locations north and east in the United States are rather indefinite, and the topic should have included boundary lines. Does the north extend from the Atlantic to the Pacific or to the lakes, or to what limit does it extend from the coast? And what is included in the east—the entire eastern boundary, including the southern states on the coast? And if so where does the south begin when that section is studied or the west when it alone is the topic? No information having been given, each one will be compelled to make his own boundaries. The author of these topics will take the Mississippi river, the center between the east and west; that between the north and south the Mason and Dixon's line, including the entire country below that line as south, and the entire section west of the Mississippi and north of the Mason and Dixon's line as west, including Alaska. This leaves the north and east to include the section from the Atlantic to the Mississippi and from the northern boundary east of the Mississippi as far south as the Mason and Dixon's line. These seem to be the only sensible divisions of north and east, the south alone and the west alone.

In this section north and east so defined it may seem to many that there is no missionary work to be done, but the opposite is the case. One would think that all people in this section were Christianized or had Christian opportunities, but when we look over the field from three standpoints we shall find that there is much need of missionary work. These three viewpoints are (1) the support of old and weak churches, (2) the organization of churches in sections recently builded and (3) the work among the foreign population.

1. The support of weak churches, many of which are old. In these old churches the young people have left the country for the city, and many historic churches with only a few old people left to support them have died or are about dead. It is said that in New England the farms in some sections have been almost deserted, and the few people remaining, being no longer able to support the churches, have allowed them to die. The buildings are in a deplorable condition, and the people are even worse spiritually. The Sabbath day is practically forgotten, and work is done on that day just as on other days. New England, the former settlement of the pilgrims and Puritans! Does not such a condition demand the missionary to revive the old time religion? One denomination alone in Pennsylvania aids 193 churches. The same denomination assists in paying 137 ordained ministers in the same great state. Besides, it has many evangelists in the state, going from place to place, and the 137 ministers in many cases have two, three and even four churches under their care.

Considering the origin of New England, the case there is the saddest of all. Some one recently said (and it was not meant facetiously), "The little brown men of Korea had better come to New England and do missionary work among the descendants of the Puritans!"

Local Churches Sunday School Lesson Christian Endeavor

The missionary work is required for the organization of churches in new towns and villages. This section has especial demands upon it along this line. Railroads cover it as a network. What is even more, the trolley cars have gone almost everywhere. As a result new settlements are springing up on all sides. Towns of 500, 1,000, 1,200 and 1,500 dot the country otherwise not inhabited. Here is where we need organized church union. The first church organized should have the field, or a religious census of the towns should be taken, and the denomination having the largest number of adherents should have the only church. But, alas, how long it takes us to learn from experience!

When will we get over such a foolish system? One church in a town will be strong, be able to select one of the finest of ministers, pay him a living salary regardless of hard times or high prices, and also to keep him if it likes him, for where another church wants him so much as to pay him a higher salary or other allurements the one church will be able to step up and say, "We can and will do for you as much as any other church, and, besides, we love you, and the Lord is blessing you in your work here." That will end the matter, and he will stay. Thousands of ministers in city and country are living on dying salaries, but never murmur, and largely because of the existence of too many churches, located too closely together. When will the Protestant church learn the lesson that the Catholic church is daily flaunting before them? Think of six churches in a town of 1,200 population! What does it mean? Six starved ministers' families—many people dodging corners when they see certain persons for fear of having tickets of some kind about the church pushed before them.

2. Missionary work among the foreign population in the north and east. In this section, as defined, there is a larger number of foreigners than in all the rest of the country combined.

PEONAGE IS ALLEGED AND TRIAL IS NOW ON

Shocking Revelations Made In a Texas Case.

Austin, Tex., Jan. 27.—On trial in the federal court here are the first cases of alleged peonage ever tried in Texas. The defendants are William S. Houston, former constable; Joseph W. Woods, former justice of the peace, both of Somerville; Robert S. Newsome, foreman of the Koppe plantation near Somerville, and Harlan McLeod, overseer on the plantation.

The government alleges that many young white boys and negroes were captured by Houston and sent to the farm without trial and held in bondage. The white boy victims of the alleged peonage system are from many different parts of the country, one of them being from Windsor, Canada, and another from Los Angeles. In each instance they were passing Somerville on the train when they were picked up by Houston and sent into alleged bondage.

Ward M. Fuller of St. Joseph, Mo., aged nineteen, testified that he was on his way to Brownsville, Tex., two years ago, when Houston captured him and sent him to the Koppe farm. He was placed in a stockade with a lot of negro men and women and was whipped with a big leather strap at different times, negroes sitting upon his head and feet while the "bat" was applied to his bare back by McLeod and Newsome, he testified. He saw many other prisoners whipped while he was there. Frequently at night Newsome and McLeod would enter the stockade and whip the negroes until they were exhausted.

GARY SET BACK

Building Operations Suspended by Reason of Labor Strikes.

Gary, Ind., Jan. 27.—Six unions are now on strike here—the carpenters, roofers, lathers, the sheet metal workers and the Collins-McNulty faction of the electrical workers' union—and it is feared old unions will be called out. As it is, more than $1,000,000 worth of new buildings are tied up and the starting of $2,000,000 worth of new work is checked. As a result, hundreds of men are out of work, contractors are idle, and the whole economic situation in Gary is affected.

RECEIVER DEMANDED

Trouble Has Arisen in Knights of Pythias Endowment Rank.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—A bill of complaint has been filed in the federal court by several members of the insurance department of the Knights of Pythias residing in Louisiana against the supreme lodge K. of P., in which it is asked that an interlocutory receiver be appointed to take charge of the trust fund belonging to the fourth class of the endowment rank. It is also asked that the receiver have the right to demand possession of all money and properties belonging to the reserve or trust fund of the fourth class and "to demand from the officers of the said supreme lodge an accounting of funds withdrawn by them from said fourth class and not accounted for to said trust fund, as well as to demand the restitution of funds belonging to said fourth class withheld by the supreme lodge or any of the officers thereof."

Lord Decies and Vivien Gould Are Licensed to Marry.

New York, Jan. 27.—John De La Poer Beresford, Lord Decies, peer of Great Britain, and Miss Vivien Gould, daughter of George J. Gould, who is twenty-six years his junior, went to the city hall and obtained a license to be married. The wedding will take place in St. Bartholomew's church on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 7. Miss Gould seemed much embarrassed and filled out the form without uttering a word. His lordship's only comment was "most extraordinary"—a phrase which he has enunciated every few minutes since he landed. When the time came to pay the license fee of $1 he said in a hearty tone: "By Jove, I will, and gladly." He dug into his trousers pocket and produced the money. In answer to the question as to number of previous marriages, his lordship wrote "nil" in the application.

Nobody Interested in Him.

Hammond, Ind., Jan. 27.—The body of a well-dressed man was found in Douglas park. There were two bullet holes in the head. A note found on the body said: "Nobody in this world is interested in me, dead or alive. It is simply a case where I have decided to finish my journey and lie down to rest." The body is at the Hammond morgue awaiting identification.

Rebels Took to Flight.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 27.—The rebels took the town of San Ignacio, south of Juarez, but when the troops of the Fourteenth cavalry went down there from Juarez the rebels fled to the hills and the municipal officials who had been jailed by the rebels, are again in control, guarded by troops.

The agitation in the present session of the legislature to enact a child labor law is entirely a waste of time. There is a child labor law on the statute book now which covers the essential points, so that any abuse in that direction can easily be reached. There is a great deal of fool sentiment displayed on that subject especially by those who were born with a "golden spoon in their mouth." In their effort to correct what they think abuses of child labor, greater injury may be inflicted on children who should work, who want to work, and to prevent such from working may be great damage to them. Any child who can be put to work by its parent at an early age in light employment in doing chores, etc., is better off than if allowed to be idle. If children were kept in absolute idleness until they are sixteen years old crime and pauperism would be doubled in a generation. There are many needy families, especially widows left without means, who need the small pittance children can earn. Besides putting a child to work early, teaches them dexterity and aptness to handle things, so that when they arrive at an age when the stern realities of life have to be met, they are qualified to meet them, and the battle of life will be much easier for them.

Pushing Republican Work.

(St. Louis Globe-Democrat.)

The country will be surprised as well as gratified to learn that the Ways and Means Committee unanimously reported a tariff commission bill to the House. Democratic as well as Republican members of the committee voted in favor of it. Herebefore the Democrats have been opposed to such a measure. They have derided the present Tariff Board, and said that it could accomplish nothing. The board is not exactly what a majority of the Republicans wanted. It does not go far enough toward furnishing a body of men who can get information of the general labor conditions at home and abroad, with the prices of the raw materials and the finished product, and lay this information before Congress to be used in tariff revising whenever revision becomes necessary. A tariff commission with more members and larger powers than the board is what the president and the Republican leaders have urged. These things are provided in the bill which was laid before the House.

Naturally the President is pleased at this forward step by the House. The bill is a compromise between the measure framed by Longworth and that drawn up by Dalzell. Its provisions, when submitted to the president, gained his immediate approval. As it has the Republican leaders behind it in the House it is reasonably certain to go through that chamber. The fact that it secured the favor of the Democratic members of the committee indicates that no serious objection to it by the Democrats in the House need be looked for. It provides for a commission of five members or two more than are on the present board and it will have larger powers. The presumption is that the three members of the existing body will be retained on the commission, if the act passes, and two new men will be appointed. As the board has been in existence a year and a half, it has had an experience which will be valuable in laying out the plans and prosecuting the work which the enlarged scope of the commission will render necessary.

At last a definition of a bachelor girls' club has been found. An exchange says that it is an association of girls who think they are more likely to get a husband by pretending that they do not care for any.

Kokomo man decided to go to jail rather than pay an eleven dollar fine for kissing a girl. That's very thoughtful of him. There he will have time to grow reminiscent and regret his evil ways.

But that's not half so worse as that Huntington girl who paid a bill with a kiss.

They say that a girl with chocolate eyes, taffy hair and a sweet disposition is not necessarily the candy kid.

That reminds us of that young woman (her name was Tandy) who married a man named Nicely here the other day. It might be possible to squeeze a near wheeze out of that.

Oh, if his name only began with "C."

Strange, isn't it—when you see a young couple strolling around the business part of town about 7 o'clock in the morning you naturally look at the marriage licenses in that evening's paper.

BREEDING BUGS TO DESTROY PESTS.

The California state insectary, which has been of such great help to farmers, gardeners and fruit growers of the state, is described in an interesting illustrated article in the February Popular Mechanics Magazine. The institution collects, breeds and distributes beneficial insects upon a scale never attempted anywhere else in the world.

The breeding of beneficial insects is really a less complicated matter than might be supposed. All that is necessary is a few specimens of the insect and an abundant supply of its appropriate food. Then if the right conditions of heat, light and ventilation are supplied, the enormous reproductive powers of the insects may be trusted to take care of the rest.

The scientists in charge of the insectary keep the eggs, larvae and matured insects of all known beneficial species of importance in the state in "cold storage," that is to say at a temperature that will keep them dormant, without injuring their vitality. Whenever a serious outbreak of any pest insect is reported in any part of the State the first thing necessary at the insectary is to secure pest-infested leaves, twigs or fruit. These are placed in breeding cages along with the beneficial insect known to be the natural enemy of that particular pest, and the temperature regulated to the proper degree for insect development. The beneficial insects at once become active; and, finding an abundance of their appropriate food, they multiply with great rapidity. Within a very few days after receiving notice of the outbreak of the pest, the parasitologists of the insectary are ready to ship colonies numbering thousands of the insect which is best calculated to bring the pest under subjection.

BARGAIN DAY.

If you're shopping, call me early, call me early, mother dear; Tomorrow'll be the happiest time of all the glad new year; The gladdest, saddest, maddest time; the maddest time—hooray! We'll visit with the dry goods folk, for it is bargain day.

Little Effie shall be with us tomorrow at the store. We three shall be together, when they open wide the door; And before the people carry all the pretty things away We must buy a new kimona, for it is bargain day.

All the city will be quiet—in slumber will be lost— Except where pillow-slips and hobbles skirts are being sold at cost, Where butcher knives and overshoes dance merrily and gay— That is where we'll linger, mother, for it is bargain day.

The night winds come and go, mother, upon the meadow grass; I can not comb my hair, it seems we need a looking glass; A looking glass we needs must have to comb our hair. And say! Let's get some hair to comb, mother, you know it's bargain day.

So if you're shopping, call me early, call me early, mother dear; Tomorrow'll be the happiest time of all the glad new year. We'll have a dollar-eighty-eight, so we the cash can pay; And purchase to our heart's desire, for it is bargain day.

That advertising pays is evidenced in the following incident: Thomas Chambers, a stock raiser of Bartholomew county, advertised in the Columbus Republican for a housekeeper and his former wife answered it from Lexington, Ky.  * CALLED HIS HEARERS * * BUNCH OF DEAD ONES. *

The Saturday Evening Post is responsible for this story: "Senator Beveridge and Fred Landis, former representative and now an Indiana novelist, campaigned together in Indiana last fall.

"Landis had a particularly effective peroration relating to the wrongs perpetrated by the railroads on the people. It had a lot about the right of eminent domain and told how these grasping corporations could come along and run their roads through farms, houses, graveyards—or anywhere.

"They were speaking in Michigan City and Landis got down to his peroration. He pulled out all the tremolo stops and had his audience worked up to a high pitch of enthusiasm. 'And, fellow citizens,' he shouted, 'they can run their roads through those sacred cemeteries, those last resting places of the sainted dead, where you, fellow citizens, and your ancestors have been buried for fifty years.'"

TRIAL DATE SET.

Greensburg Democrat: The case of the State vs. Dr. Earl Jewett for assault has been set for trial next Thursday. This action grew out of trouble between Drs. Pagel and Jewett in Glad's drug store in St. Paul several days ago. The case was set for an earlier hearing but because of business in the criminal circuit court in which the defendant's attorney was engaged, the trial was postponed until he could be present.

AMUSEMENTS

The Palace will have an especially attractive program this evening in the picture, "An Eventful Evening." It is an Edison drama which is said to be very interesting. The incidents which crowd themselves all in a jumble on the life of one person forms the basis for a story which is decidedly unusual. A new illustrated song will be sung.

The Vaudet will have a big double program this evening with the usual two reels of pictures. Besides the regular program the management will offer a special vaudeville act; John B. Vincent, the original corkologist will appear in a short skit. The Imp film, "The Model Dedemption" is said to be a story of great merit. The other picture, "Paul and Virginia" is a Thanhouser film, a drama with a strong plot. A new illustrated song will be on the program.

The Star Grand will present a Reliance film tonight entitled "The Refuge." It is a subject that will be recorded in the annals of the motographic history as the most powerful and eloquent sermon against the evils of drink ever produced. No scenes of battle, with war-begrimed heroes locked in deadly embrace can touch the human heart and cause the welling of sympathetic tears as does the struggle of the unfortunates in "The Refuge," with the demon Drink which which winds its sinuous grip about them and drags them down, down the abyss of degradation and despair, until reinforcement arrives—the lads and lassies marching under the banner of the Salvation Army—and the enemy is ignominiously routed. Earl Robertson will sing "Go Way From me I hate You." Extra—The Cameraphone talking picture.

Klaw and Erlanger's stupendous production of Edmund Day's famous play "The Round-Up" will be seen at English's opera house the entire week of January 30, including a Wednesday and Saturday matinee. This play with its heart interest, thrills and startling sensationalism in the most realistic battle scene ever presented, has a tremendously popular appeal and its engagement here will be one of the biggest events of the season. The scenes of the play are laid in Southern Arizona and the character and atmosphere of this region are graphically portrayed. The broad art of the scenery painter and the marvels of stagecraft have never produced such scenes as those presented in "The Round-Up." The battle scene is almost appalling in its realism with shot and shell and galling gun, and it is worked up to a climax of overwhelmingly excitement. The scene of the last act at Sweetwater, presenting a cattle round-up is a typical picture of Western bravado and cowboy horsemanship. This is the second visit of "The Round-Up" to Indianapolis, it having played an engagement there two seasons ago, but the engagement was secured at the request and for the benefit of those who didn't have a chance to see it before. Last season it made a tour of the South. The cast is an excellent one and the production is practically the same as was seen here before.

JIMMY VALENTINE, WARDEN HANDLER AND ROSE LANE.

CHAPTER VII.

JIMMY VALENTINE slowly recovered from the shock he experienced at beholding before him the man who had in the old days been his accomplice in many questionable adventures. No; he had concluded wrongly. No; he was not yet free from all the associations of the years past—those years which he was endeavoring to forget.

"Hello, Red," he finally addressed Flanagan. "Come out from behind the curtain. The coast is clear for you. How did you know I was here?" Red came forth. "Oh, leave it to me, Jimmy, to keep track of an old pal." He held out his hand, which Valentine listlessly shook.

Red could not understand his former companion's indifferent manner. "What's wrong?" he asked.

"Nothing."

"Aw, cut it out. Somethin's got you guessin', an' so don't try to kid me." The released convict looked meditatively at Red. Then he spoke.

"Red, did you ever 'do a bit'?"

"Sure—Joliet."

"And you have been in one of those rotten holes and still think it's a good game?"

"You've weakened—eh?" sneered Red.

"I've turned square."

"You're crazy."

"No; it's only the man who thinks he can beat the law who's crazy," said Valentine.

"You'd a won out if it hadn't been for that Cotton, who blew on you because you beat him out of a dame."

Valentine turned and clutched him by the arm.

"You rat, don't you ever speak of her again or I'll murder you." He threw Red roughly away from him.

"Now, get out of here and forget you know me."

"Good God, Jimmy!" exclaimed the other, "I wouldn't say anything to hurt your feelings. Why, I'd do anything for you; I'd done your bit if I could have. Why, I'd go to h—l for you."

"Will you turn square with me? That's all I want of you now. Let's you and I start now and from this minute on go square. If we starve in the streets. Will you do that, Red?" Valentine spoke in intense earnest.

AN EASY AND HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR.

Who does not know of the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, put up an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. It is sold by all leading druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the manufacturers upon receipt of price.

FOR YOUR HAIR

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

When the roots of the hair are entirely dead and the pores of the scalp are glazed over, we do not believe that anything can restore hair growth.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed and will not gum nor permanently stain the hair.

We want to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it.

We lend our endorsement to Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and sell it on this guarantee, because we believe it is the best hair tonic ever discovered. It comes in two sizes, price 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at our store.—The Rexall Store, Thos. W. Lytle.

Red went to the opposite doorway and softly called, "Oh, Bill!"

Avery, dressed in a roughly cut ready made suit of clothes and looking in much better health than he did on the day he defied Detective Doyle and finished his term in Sing Sing, came slowly into the hotel parlor.

"Hello, Bill! You're taking a chance," greeted Valentine, "and you are, too, Red."

"I had to see you," returned Avery. "I have just been telling Red"—

"Sure, I heard you hand out that 'square' talk. I suppose you want me to join you in this 'going straight' business, too, eh?"

"I don't think the crooked game is any good. And you are getting old for clever work."

"Think so, eh?" snarled Avery suspiciously.

"He isn't too old to be an 'outside man' with us," put in Red.

"We don't need any outside man any more, Red," decided Valentine.

Avery glared into the speaker's face.

"So you're out now, and you're going to throw Red and me out, eh? All this turning square talk I heard was a stall to get rid of me because I am old, eh?"

"I don't have to stall you, Avery."

The old thief leaned threateningly toward Valentine, shaking his withered fist as violently as the flabby muscles, sapped by years of prison air and prison fare, would permit.

"Like the d—l!" he cried, choking in his wrath. "I'm old, that's your dope. Going to throw me for a rookie, eh? Well, I'll show you. When guys start stalling me I'll show them up. From now on I'm a copper, and I'll show you up, Valentine. I'll get you, too—I'll get you good!"

Red Flanagan had won a continent wide reputation as a "smooth worker."

He was one of those painstaking, conscientious burglars who followed habitually the laudable practice of looking after details. His employers, among whom had been Jimmy Valentine, "Chicago Whitey" and other leaders in their profession, had in the past shown a flattering willingness to recommend him (not in their own handwriting, to be sure) as a thorough artist, an untiring student and one who one day would probably revolutionize the business of caring for other people's money. In a word, Red was thorough, which means a great deal in his line.

So, true to his reputation, Red, fearing complications because of the pitch to which Avery had unconsciously raised his voice, had stepped behind the portieres to keep watch on the short hallway that led to it. This hallway opened out into the main hall of the hotel, at the far end of which was

A half starved patridge was found in a Christmas tree, shipped from Maine to A. Dallas, in Waterbury, Conn. The tree had been tied so the bird was made a prisoner. When found, warmed and fed it revived.

"Aw, don't kid yourself," warned Red. "The copper 'll let you be square if you're a stool pigeon, if you tip off old pals. No other way."

"Absurd! How, for instance, could they 'do me'?"

"Absurd, eh? What about Kid Steele? He turned square, but he wouldn't squeal, and job after job they threw him out of till he was hungry in the street. Then a copper offered to stake him to a feed if he'd 'turn up' an old pal. And he murdered the cop on the spot, and now he's doing life. Turn square, eh? That means be a stool or a bum in our game."

Red raised his hands protestingly and turned his face away from Valentine.

"Beat the coppers," insisted the other. "Get away where they can't find you. We can do that."

"Yes, we can," Red again faced his friend. "Why, Doyle is in town to see you now."

"Doyle here?" in alarm.

"Yes. I met him when he got off the 'rattler.' He's going to give you your orders, and you'll have to do as he tells you if you turn square. He knows you beat it. He was laying for Avery when he came out and told him to report once a month. And what about Avery? You sent him to me, and we've been at work on something."

"Where is Avery?" asked Valentine quickly.

"Want to see him?"

"Yes; I can explain better." Valentine crossed the parlor and peered through the portieres.

a carriage entrance. At the opposite side of the parlor was an exit leading to a dining room, which in turn had an opening directly next to the main entrance of the hotel. Red realized that a casual passerby might become suspicious of Avery's words should they be overheard. Besides, the implacable Doyle was in town. A friend of his, a "runner" for Doc Slater's faro bank, had so informed Red that very morning.

Red suddenly issued a warning hiss. "Duck, Avery! Here comes Doyle!"

The kidneys are overtaxed; Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains—

Backache, sideache, headache. Early symptoms of kidney ills. Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follow.

A Rushville citizen tells here the way to keep the kidneys well.

Mason Maxey, 836 West Third street, Rushville, Ind., says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a kidney remedy of great merit and I therefore hold them in high esteem. When I procured my first box of Doan's Kidney Pills at F. B. Johnson & Co.'s Drug Store three years ago. I was badly in need of a remedy that would relieve me of the pain in my back. I found Doan's Kidney Pills to be a reliable preparation for that purpose and by the time I had finished the contents of two boxes, the pain had disappeared. I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills at that time and the elapse of three years has not changed my opinion of them. I willingly confirm all I have said in my original statement."

WILL LOOK INTO CASE OF CANNON

Contest May Face Uncle Joe I. Next House.

DID HE "INFLUENCE" VOTES?

Charges That Are Freely Being Made in and Around Danville Have Been Taken Up by the Speaker's Recent Opponent, Who, if He Finds Them Substantiated, Says He Will Take the Case to Congress.

Danville, Ill., Jan. 27.—Speaker Cannon's Democratic opponent for congress last fall, J. H. Cundiff, says that he is making a careful investigation of the charges that Cannon's friends spent thousands of dollars in this county to elect him, and if he finds they are true he will institute a contest the moment the new congress meets in March. It is likely that there will be a grand jury investigation of vote-selling throughout Cannon's district. A politician declared that if State's Attorney Lewman would delve into the Cannon election, something rich would be developed, but unless he did the grand jury might just as well adjourn.

Summons was issued against the First National bank to bring all of its books into court for grand jury inspection. The object of this is to learn how much money Mayor Platt and Judge Kimbrough drew out on election day. The books were brought in, but before they were examined Judge Kimbrough instructed the jury that it could not go back more than eighteen months, and the jury is in a quandary now what to do.

Judge Kimbrough remarked that he had never spent a dollar for the purpose of buying votes, but the money used on election day was used for the purpose of paying his workers. This created considerable surprise, as the law specifically states that whoever uses money or anything else to bring about his election forfeits his office.

Mayor Platt followed Judge Kimbrough into the grand jury room. He came out five minutes later. It was stated the reason he did not remain longer was that he had declined to answer all questions.

Summonses have been issued for about one hundred more witnesses, including prominent Democrats, who are expected to give information concerning the November election.

Disorganized, Says Hale.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Senator Hale of Maine states that congress is in the most disorganized condition that he has ever witnessed in his long career in the senate, and says a crisis faces the Republican party.

THE PRESIDENT URGES TREATY

Earnestly Hopes for Reciprocal Arrangements With Canada.

SENDS MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

In Urging the Enactment Into Law of the Proposed Trade Agreement Between the Dominion and This Country, Mr. Taft Sets Out Reasons Why the Ties Which Unite Neighbors Should Be Knit More Closely.

Washington, Jan. 27.—President Taft sent a message to the senate conveying the Canadian reciprocity agreement, which was read, and at its conclusion the message and agreement were referred to the finance committee.

"The guiding motive in seeking adjustment of trade relations between two countries so situated geographically should be to give play to productive forces as far as practicable, regardless of political boundaries," says the president's message. "While equivalency should be sought in an arrangement of this character, an exact balance of financial gain is neither imperative nor attainable. No yardstick can measure the benefit to the two peoples of this free commercial intercourse, and no trade agreement should be judged wholly by custom house figures.

"We have so increased in population and in our consumption of food products and the other necessities of life, hitherto supplied largely from our own country, that unless we materially increase our production we can see before us a change in our economic position from that of a country selling to the world food and natural products of the farm and forest, to one consuming and importing them. Excluding cotton, which is exceptional, a radical change is already shown in our exports in the falling off in the amount of our agricultural products sold abroad and a corresponding marked increase in our manufactures exported.

"A far-sighted policy requires that if we can enlarge our supply of natural resources and especially of food products and the necessities of life, without substantial injury to any of our producing and manufacturing classes, we should take steps to do so now.

"The Dominion has greatly prospered. It has an active, aggressive and important people. They are coming to the parting of the ways. They must soon decide whether they are to regard themselves as isolated permanently from our markets by a perpetual wall or whether we are to be commercial friends. If we give them reason to take the former view, can we complain if they adopt methods denying access to certain of their natural resources except upon conditions quite unfavorable to us. Another notable instance of such a possibility may be seen in the conditions surrounding the supply of pulp wood and the manufacture of print paper for which we have made a conditional provision in the agreement, believed to be equitable. Should we not now therefore, before their policy has become too crystallized and fixed for change, meet them in a spirit of real concession, facilitate commerce between the two countries, thus increasing the natural resources available to our people?

"The geographical proximity, the closer relation of blood, common sympathies and identical moral and social ideas furnish real and striking reasons why this agreement ought to be viewed from a high plane. Since becoming a nation Canada has been our good neighbor. She has cost us nothing in the way of preparations for defense against her possible assault, and she never will. She has sought to agree with us quickly when differences have disturbed our relations. She shares with us common traditions and aspirations. I feel I have correctly interpreted the wish of the American people by expressing in the arrangement now submitted to congress for its approval their desire for a more intimate and cordial relationship with Canada. I therefore earnestly hope that the measure will be promptly enacted into law."

REPUBLICAN EDITORS IN BUSINESS SESSION

State Association Holds Meeting
At Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—The regular midwinter session of the Indiana Republican Editorial association is being held today in the palm room of the Claypool hotel. There is a large attendance of the members, and much interest is being manifested in the various papers prepared for the occasion.

"The Commission Form of City Government" was the subject of a prepared address presented by Rudolph G. Leeds of the Indianapolis Sun, the discussion of which was led by E. C.
Toner of Anderson and R. A. Brown of Frankfort.

Will B. Maddock of Bloomfield presented a paper on the subject of "Understandable Prices for Advertising," and Jesse Pierce of Clinton gave the editors a talk on "What the Junior Lintotype Can Do." Julian Hogate of Danville leading in the discussion of this topic. Under the Head of "Shop Talk" there was a general discussion and exchange of ideas which preceded the reports of committees. The election of officers for the ensuing year will conclude the day's program.

As an opener to today's business meeting, the editors and their wives enjoyed a social session and banquet last night which was attended by about a hundred, quite a number of the members of the legislature being present.

Among those who responded to toasts were former Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks, former Attorney General William L. Taylor, Captain Harry S. New, Edwin M. Lee, chairman of the Republican state central committee, and James P. Goodrich, former chairman.

A MISTRIAL

The Schenk Jury Found It Impossible to Agree on Verdict.

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 27.—Unable to agree on a verdict, the jury in the case of Mrs. Laura F. Schenk, tried on a charge of poisoning her husband, John O. Schenk, was discharged. The case will now be redocketed and re-tried at the next term of court unless a continuance is asked. As soon as the jury was discharged it was announced that they had stood eleven for acquittal and one for conviction on almost every ballot taken.

Mrs. Schenk was admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000 several weeks ago, but now that the jury has disagreed
her attorneys will ask the court to reduce the amount of bail by half. If the reduction is granted bail will be furnished and she will be released from jail soon.

Farmers Present Memorial.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Senator Terrill of Georgia has laid before the senate a memorial signed by the legislative committee of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of America, urging on congress the necessity of adopting the resolution providing for a constitutional amendment for the election of senators by popular vote.

Burial of Mrs. Eddy.

Boston, Jan. 27.—After lying in the receiving tomb of Mt. Auburn cemetery in Cambridge since Dec. 8, and guarded night and day by armed Christian Science members, the body of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy was yesterday afternoon buried beneath tons of concrete, steel and crushed stone in a grave on the shores of Halloway lake.

Arrested the Doctor.

Logansport, Ind., Jan. 27.—Dr. Chas.
D. Pettigrew, whose license was revoked by the state board of medical examiners, has been arrested on a charge of practicing medicine without a license. The affidavit says Dr. Pettigrew has ignored the action of the state board in cancelling his license, and has continued to practice.

Manobo Outlawry at End.

Manila, Jan. 27.—General Pershing, commander of the department of Mindanao, has ended the punitive campaign in the Davao district, having killed or captured all the murderers and dispersed the lawless Manobo bands.

NOW READY FOR THE GOVERNOR

Option Repeal Bill Passes the House 60 to 39.

WAS PUT THROUGH IN A HURRY

Recognizing the Futility of Opposition,
the Minority Confined Their Protests to Brief Speeches, While the Majority, Sure of Their Position, Didn't Recognize the Need of Extended Argument on the Measure.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—By a vote of 60 to 39 the Proctor bill amending the local option law by reducing the unit of option to the township and city instead of the county passed the house of representatives late yesterday afternoon. This result was accomplished with little oratorical flourish, the minority recognizing the futility of protest, while the majority was calmly conscious of the ability to put through this important platform measure. At that, however, it was not a strictly party vote, the following Democrats voting against it: Merriman, Clare and Higgins, while Greiger, Van Horn, Grimmer and Wider, Republicans, voted for it.

State Hospital Proposed.

Earlier in the session about a score of minor bills came up for second reading in the house and were sent to en-grossment. The monotony was broken when a message from the governor was announced. It was the recommendation of an offer made by Dr. Robert W. Long and wife to endow the city with $200,000 worth of property to establish a state hospital in connection with the Indiana university school of medicine. The reading was received with applause, and the message was referred to the ways and means committee, with directions to report by bill or otherwise. The governor urged that the gift be accepted. Transmitted with the governor's message was a letter of agreement signed by Dr.
and Mrs. Long, setting out the terms of the proposed gift to the university.
The conditions of the endowment were imposed by the donors. One of them is that Dr. Long is to be chairman of the committee in charge of the construction of the hospital building and of the committee in charge of the disposal of the real estate. Dr. Long is a practitioner of many years' residence in this city.

A Stormy Caucus.

After being in a stormy caucus for two hours, the Democratic members of the house parted, with a divided opinion as to the merits of the Keegan child labor bill, but not, however, until the bill had been adopted, section by section, without change, and not until a determined effort had been made to have it appear as the platform measure on the subject. This latter situation it was said by supporters of the bill, was brought about. Others, while admitting the adoption of the bill as a platform measure, declared their intention of "bolting the caucus, while others, confused by the numerous viva voce votes and by the wrangles in the caucus, say the whole question is exactly as it was when Massellink, chairman of the house committee on labor, brought up three reports, and then,
after a conference with Speaker Veneman and Keegan, withdrew the reports.

From the attitude the majority members of the house have taken, it is apparent there will be some vitriolic speeches when the bill is again brought up and the reports of committees are called for.

County and Township Business.

The house committee on county and township business, which is considering the township trustees and township assessors' bill for increasing salaries and prescribing regulations for the respective offices, expects to hold at least one more meeting before making a report. The trustees have consented to sharp decreases in the salaries asked, and Representative Poor, who introduced the measure, says he believes a satisfactory agreement will be reached and the bill will be reported in with amendments which will prove satisfactory. The salary provision is on a scale based on township population.

The Hord claim, which has been before the Indiana legislature for years, will be presented again this session. William B. Hord of New York is in Indianapolis to push the claim, and bills will probably be introduced soon in both houses for its payment. Hord contends that the state is indebted to him in the sum of $63,585 for services rendered to the state in the successful prosecution and collection of its war loan refund claim against the United States, amounting to $635,859.20.

To Regulate Weights.

At the suggestion of Representative Spencer, who has introduced a bill providing for the regulation of weights and measures, H. E. Barnard, state food and drug commissioner, will draft a bill to regulate net weights and measures for the control of package food goods. The request was made in committee meeting when Mr. Barnard was urging the passage of the Spencer bill. The net weight evil is said to be one of the most glaring in the disposal of foodstuffs in the state.

MRS. HEINZE

Resists Former Husband's Plea
to Be Relieved From Alimony.

THE HEINZES AGAIN IN THE LIMELIGHT

Dragged In By the First Husband of Mrs. H.

New York, Jan. 27.—Formal application for relief from the $100 a week alimony he is paying to his divorced wife, Bernice Golden Henderson, who recently became the wife of Fritz Augustus Heinze, has been made before Justice Gerard by Charles A. Henderson. Henderson objects to paying for the support and maintenance of another man's wife. The motion is opposed by Mrs. Henderson-Heinze's lawyers.

Mrs. Heinze has planned to make her second theatrical debut soon on a London stage. She is now in Mount Clemens, Mich., where she is undergoing a mud bath treatment for nervousness. Heinze has been living here in seclusion.

The opposition to Mr. Henderson's motion leads to rumors that the new-weds are not happy. While Mrs. Henderson-Heinze's lawyers refused to discuss the case, it is said that Mrs.
Heinze is not inclined to see herself separated from the $100 a week. It is also stated that Heinze is opposed to her resuming a stage career. Lillian Hobart French, once an associate of Ann O'Della Diss Debar, sued Heinze for $25,000 soon after his engagement to Mrs. Henderson was announced. It is stated by friends that this cloud which hung over the Heinze-Henderson romance has never entirely disappeared from the Heinze's matrimonial horizon.

EDITOR'S SUICIDE

Sol P. Hathaway of the Indianapolis
Independent Kills Himself.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—Sol P. Hathaway, eighty years old, editor of the Independent, a weekly newspaper, and one of the best known of the older residents of the city, shot and killed himself at his home at 3042 Kenwood avenue.

The suicide terminated a long illness, which is ascribed by members of the family as the cause for the action. He had been in ill health for two years, and had been confined to the house for several months, following an accident in the street, when he fell and broke a hip.

Students Being Vaccinated.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 27.—The Indiana normal school has been closed until Monday to permit the students to be vaccinated and the building fugigated as a special precaution against smallpox. A supposed case of chickenpox has been reported in the training school.

A complete stone road all the way from New York to Montreal is practically assured by a bill appropriating $2,500,000 to that end approved by the New York legislature.

The house adopted a resolution directing the committee on rules to investigate the reasons for the delay of the publication of the report of the Ballinger-Pinchot committee.

The senate has passed the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. Among the items in it is an increase of the salary of the secretary of the president from $6,000 to $10,000.

WILL LECTURE IN CINCINNATI

Mrs. May W. Donnan, Well Known Here, Will Give Series of Talks.

"NOVEL AND ITS ANALYSIS"

Mrs. May W. Donnan of Indianapolis, who has been for twenty years an authority on history and literature in Indianapolis, and other cities of Indiana, including Anderson, Rushville, Greensburg and Shelbyville, is to give a course of six lectures in Cincinnati, says the Cincinnati Enquirer. They began at ten o'clock Wednesday morning, January 25, in the Carnegie Library Building, East Walnut Hills, and will continue on alternate Wednesdays. The subject is "The Novel and Its Analysis."

Mrs. Donnan is a charming and cultured woman whose talks without notes are delightfully informal, yet are orderly and logical. Her insight and critical faculty were sharpened by years of book reviewing for the Indianapolis Journal, Press and News. She has not only traveled much on the continent, but has studied in the best colleges of England and the United States. Mrs. Donnan will be the guest of Mrs. L. J. Hackney of Annwood street, East Walnut Hills, who is chairman of the committee which is arranging the course of lectures, and those who met Mrs. Donnan on other visits to Mrs. Hackney know the pleasure that is in store for her audiences.

LARGE AMOUNT OF STOCK ENTERED

Third Combination Sale to be Held Tomorrow in Davis Bros. Barn. Premises to be Record Breaker

WILL START AT 12:30 O'CLOCK

The third combination sale will be held tomorrow in the Davis Bros. sale barn in South Morgan street. This sale promises to surpass all others as a large amount of stock has already been entered. Among the stock entered are 40 brood sows, 33 head of Jersey cattle and 35 head of horses and colts. The sale will begin promptly at 12:30 o'clock. Fred Capp will act as auctioneer. On previous occasions the sale has attracted a large crowd of people and the promoters are looking for even a larger one tomorrow.

Minnesota employs its convicts profitably in the manufacture of binder twine.

ROOSTER SUCCUMBS.

Word has been received here that Herman Tompkins, better known as "Nick" had arrived in Roswell, New Mexico, safely with his "cargo," which consisted of his household goods and live stock. He made the trip in a box car, it requiring eight days to cover the distance. According to information received here, everything was well and healthy except a rooster, which expired during the tedious travel. Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins will live in the Southwest permanently.

HAVE NOVEL CARD FOR VALENTINES

Small Ones Are Gradually Taking Place of Larger and More Expensive Ones.

SAID TO BE VERY ARTISTIC

St. Valentine's day is not far distant and local merchants who carry valentines in stock are preparing for it by unpacking their stocks and getting them ready for display. Dealers say that the small post card valentine is rapidly shelving the larger and more expensive ones and that wholesale dealers tell them that they are no longer going strong on the latter variety, but instead are making specialties of the post card or novelty sort.

In this connection an entirely new novelty is to be introduced this year, which promises to be very popular. The new departure consists of small but very pretty and artistic valentines, which are inclosed in small, neat boxes on the top of which are post card designs. In fact the tops of the boxes are post cards and all one has to do who wishes to send one of the valentines is to write a name and address on the top of the box, put a stamp on it and mail it. Or if this method is not desirable the valentine, which is of the post card variety, may be taken out of the box and mailed.

FARMERS STRIVE TO CAPTURE PRIZE

Lewisville Bank Offers $25 For Best Corn at Coming Institute and Corn Show.

RUSH COUNTY MEN WILL TRY

The officers and promoters of the Lewisville Farmers' Institute and Corn Show, that is to be held at Lewisville on Saturday, February 11, are doing everything they can to make it a great success, says the New Castle Times. The institute and corn show will be held in the Guyer opera house and there will be three sessions, one in the forenoon, one in the afternoon and a third at night.

Farmers all over southern Henry county and northern Rush county are much interested in capturing that $25 prize hung up by the First National Bank of Lewisville, and every fellow is going to do his best to capture the prize.

A fine program of eleven or twelve pages is being gotten out for the coming affair, which promises in every way to be a big success.

SEED CORN IS SAID TO BE VERY SCARCE

Heavy Freeze in October, While Corn Was Full of Sap, Killed The Germ.

THE GRAIN NOT YET DRIED OUT

At the grain dealers meeting in Indianapolis last week, a note of warning was sounded to the farmers of the State in regard to seed corn.

The heavy freeze in October while the corn was full of sap killed the germ in much of it. Then the continued cold since has kept the grain from drying out, so that a great deal of corn has molded since being gathered. In fact there is no dry corn yet, and the elevators are not buying any as it is too wet to shell.

Prof. Christie of Purdue said that every farmer should prepare a testing box and test every ear of corn to be used for seed, as this is the only way that they can be sure it will grow.
